

KUO Group is a Mexican industrial conglomerate operating in more than 70 countries, with 28 production plants in five countries (Mexico, the United States, Belgium, China, and Spain), and businesses concentrated in three sectors: (i) Consumer goods, in the pork market with the Kekén and Kinitón brands (exporter to Japan, South Korea, the United States, and China, primarily) and the branded food market with Herdez del Fuerte,^[1] as well as a joint venture with Hormel Foods called Megamex Foods; (ii) Chemicals, in the synthetic rubber market with the Dynasol^[2] brand and the polymers market with Resirene; and (iii) Automotive, in the transmission market with Tremec and the spare parts market with the Fritec, TF Victor and Moresa brands, all marketed and distributed through Dacomsa (together referred to as "Strategic Business Units" or "SBUs"). It has more than 24,000 employees (34% women and 66% men), distributed in the consumer goods sector (75%), automotive sector (17%), chemicals sector (6%), and corporate (2%).

The environmental and social review of the proposed Operation consisted of a documentary analysis of the Company's environmental and social performance over time, with a focus on compliance with the following Performance Standards ("PS"): PS1: Assessment and Management of Environmental and Social Risks and Impacts; PS2: Labor and Working Conditions; PS 3: Resource Efficiency and Pollution Prevention; and PS4: Community Health, Safety and Security.

^[1] Strategic partnership with Grupo Herdez.

^[2] Strategic partnership with Repsol.
