

In accordance with NAFIN regulations, financing will not be provided to companies that do not comply with Mexican environmental and labor standards. NAFIN has agreed to send appropriate representatives to IIC's environmental training workshop for financial intermediaries in order to gain a better understanding of the IIC's environmental and labor standards.