

Environmental Classification and Issues: This is a Category III project according to IIC's environmental and labor review procedures. Each Eligible Company will certify its compliance with national environmental and labor laws, regulations, and standards as well as IIC policies. In order to be able to recognize potential environmental concerns and become familiar with IIC requirements, FactorLine will be required to attend the environmental training course given by the IIC.